

2015b release of the DICOM standard is now available

The DICOM Editor, David Clunie informs that the 2015b release of the DICOM standard is now available from the NEMA ftp site:

<ftp://medical.nema.org/MEDICAL/Dicom/current/>

It is also indexed from the DICOM Editor's status page at:

<http://www.dclunie.com/dicom-status/status.html>

This replaces the 2015a release.

Release notes are at:

ftp://medical.nema.org/medical/dicom/current/output/pdf/releasenotes_2015b.pdf

The changes from the 2015a release are shown highlighted in PDF files; note that changes to figures are not detected and some changed figures are not rendered in the diff files:
